Congratulations on your commitment to certification in medical-surgical nursing. This guide will assist you in either renewing your Certified Medical-Surgical Registered Nurse (CMSRN®) certification through our recertification process or becoming a CMSRN through our exam exemption process.

CMSRN TRACKER

The CMSRN Tracker offers you the online convenience of taking charge of your recertification plan. When you choose to recertify by continuing education, the Tracker is your online resource for planning, tracking, and applying for recertification.

Use the Tracker to enter and track contact hours, store your employment information, review the verification status of self-reported contact hours, and apply for CMSRN recertification.

The CMSRN Tracker is a simple tool that shows your certification information, how close you are to recertifying, and the contact hours counting toward your recertification. You can also print your certification wallet card right from your Tracker.

RECERTIFICATION

The CMSRN credential is valid for a period of 5 years. Recertification is required to maintain the CMSRN credential through the Medical-Surgical Nursing Certification Board (MSNCB®).

The recertification options are:

RECERTIFY BY CONTINUING EDUCATION

To recertify by continuing education, first you must meet specific eligibility requirements (see eligibility criteria on page 2), comply with any application deadlines, and pay the appropriate recertification fee. Self-report contact hours, update employer information, and apply online through your CMSRN Tracker at msncb.org/track-progress.

RECERTIFY BY EXAM

To recertify by examination, you must meet the exam eligibility criteria, complete the CMSRN Exam Application, and pay the appropriate application fee.

RECERTIFY BY EXAM EXEMPTION

Recertification by exam exemption is offered to those registered nurses who are already certified in medical-surgical nursing by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC).

An exam exemption application must be submitted thirty (30) days prior to the current certification expiration date, or up to one (1) year after the expiration date with a late fee*. You must meet the same eligibility criteria as recertifying CMSRNs. Exam Exemption candidates must complete and submit a paper application by mail. Email msncb@msncb.org to request an application.

*If your ANCC certification has expired, you are required to pay a late fee in addition to the application fee to apply for the CMSRN credential. Contact hours earned after your expiration date may be used one time only.

Your application deadline date is 30 days prior to your certification expiration date.
RECERTIFICATION ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

1. Hold a current certification in medical-surgical nursing through MSNCB or the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC).

   AND

2. Hold a current, full, and unrestricted license as a registered nurse (RN) in the United States or its territories; OR Hold a current, full, and unrestricted license as a first-level nurse in the country in which one’s nursing education was completed, and meet the eligibility for licensure as a registered nurse (RN) in the United States in accordance with the requirements of the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools (CGFNS).

   AND

3. Have accrued a minimum of 1,000 hours of nursing practice over the last five years in a medical-surgical setting. Practice may include clinical, management, or education.

   RN students in a nursing baccalaureate, master’s, or doctoral degree program can waive the employment requirement by submitting documentation signed by a school official verifying full-time status and matriculation along with the application. Academic courses must be biopsychosocial content and must be offered by an accredited educational institution.

   AND

4. Have earned 90 approved contact hours (CH) over the five-year period. At least 68 of these approved contact hours must be medical-surgical related. The remainder of the contact hours may be professional development or other nursing related subjects.

   CNE education programs must be presented by an individual, state, or national organization accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education.

   For initial recertification, contact hours earned as of January 1 of the first year of initial certification are acceptable. For all following certifications, contact hours within the current certification period may be submitted. Contact hour entries may be used in one recertification period only.

   MSNCB shall not discriminate against any certification candidate on the basis of age, sex, race, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or gender identity. MSNCB shall not publish materials with discriminatory content, graphics or language that may be offensive to population subgroups.

INACTIVE OR RETIRED STATUS

(Not applicable to exam exempt applicants.)

Inactive Status or Retired Status are alternatives for current CMSRN. To apply for Inactive or Retired Status, the Recertification Application minus documentation forms must be submitted along with a detailed letter of explanation for requesting the status by mail no later than 90 days prior to certification expiration. If granted, the Inactive or Retired Status begins the day after CMSRN certification expires. Email msn@msncb.org to request an application.

Inactive Status:
CMSRN unable to meet the continuing educational or practice requirements may apply for Inactive CMSRN Status. Inactive status is for one 3-year period only and is a one-time career option. There are no exceptions or extensions to this time frame.

Inactive Status lasts for three years during which the certificant may not use the CMSRN credential. A nurse who uses CMSRN during Inactive Status will have the certification revoked. Nurses on Inactive Status will receive reminders in the last year of Inactive Status and must meet current recertification requirements.

Retired Status:
CMSRN who have retired within the current certification period but wish to stay connected with other CMSRNs may apply for Retired Status.

CMSRN Retired designation is renewable every five years. The retired nurse may use “CMSRN Retired” on a resume or below their name and credential on a business card, but may NOT be used after your signature (e.g. patient chart, name badge). If a CMSRN Retired nurse re-enters the nursing workforce within the first year of the status, the nurse may regain the CMSRN credential via continuing education. If the CMSRN Retired nurse re-enters the nursing workforce after the first year of the status, the nurse must regain CMSRN by examination.
APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

When your 90 contact hours have been entered and verified, you’ve entered the required employment information, and you are within the application time frame, the online application and payment screen can be accessed from your Tracker at msnbc.org/tracker-progress.

Recertification applications will be accepted online only via your CMSRN Tracker by selecting “recertify now.”

Recertification Application Deadlines

You are eligible for CMSRN recertification starting one year prior to and up to one year after your current certification expiration date.

If your certification expires, you have a one year grace period in which to recertify (with a late fee). The CMSRN credential cannot be used with an expired certification.

Your application deadline date is 30 days prior to your certification expiration date.

Allow up to 10 business days for self-reported contact hours to be reviewed and verified. After all required CHs are verified, submit your application no later than 30 days prior to your certification expiration date to avoid a late fee.

RECERTIFICATION FEES

Prices are subject to change. It is the applicant’s professional responsibility to have the most current information which can be found at msnbc.org.

AUDIT

Random audits of applications are conducted to ensure candidates are eligible for recertification. Candidates selected for random audit will be notified by email or letter requesting copies of contact hour certificates, supervisor verification letter, and any additional information by a deadline date. Failure to provide this information by the deadline date will delay your recertification and could result in your recertification being denied. Retain all contact hour certificates in your personal files in the event of an audit.

APPROVAL

DENIAL AND REVOCATION OF CERTIFICATION

The occurrence of any of the following actions will result in the denial, suspension or revocation of certification by the Medical-Surgical Nursing Certification Board:

1. Failure to meet certification or recertification criteria.
2. Any restrictions to professional RN license, such as revocation, suspension, probation, or other sanctions by a nursing authority.
3. Failure to pay any appropriate and required fees.
4. Failure to supply requested material by deadline.
5. Falsification of information on the MSNCB examination/recertification applications, or supporting documentation.
6. Cheating on the certification examination.
7. Misrepresentation of certification status.

Any other claims or causes for denial, suspension or revocation will be decided on a per case basis by the MSNCB Directors after thorough investigation. If certification is denied, suspended, or revoked for any reason, no fee will be refunded.

RIGHT OF APPEAL

An appeal must be submitted in writing to the President of the Medical-Surgical Nursing Certification Board within 30 days of recertification denial notification. The appeal shall state specific reasons why the candidate is entitled to recertification.

The President will submit the appeal to the MSNCB Appeals Task Force which has 30 days to review blinded copies of all materials related to the appeal request. The Task Force Chairperson will notify the appeals applicant and MSNCB of the decision in writing. Any action required by the appeals decision will be carried out by the MSNCB Directors.

CONTACT HOUR REPORTING

Here are some helpful tips and reminders for earning and reporting contact hours.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS
ABOUT CMSRN RECERTIFICATION AND EXAM EXEMPTION

When do I need to submit my recertification application?
Your application deadline date is 30 days prior to your certification expiration date. Complete your application by selecting "Recertify Now" from your CMSRN Tracker. Applications submitted after the deadline date will incur a $75 late fee.

You are eligible for recertification as early as one year before your certification expiration date, and up to one year after this time (with a late fee).

How far back can I claim contact hours?
You can include any contact hours beginning from January of the year you were initially certified, or from your most recent recertification date.

How come my category type changed to Professional Development (PROFDEV)?
Recertification staff review and verify each contact hour activity. Activities with topics that cover the broad area of health care and general nursing are categorized as professional development. Staff adjust the category before verifying the activity.

How do I know if my contact hours are medical-surgical or professional development?
There are several ways to determine if the content of your contact hours is medical-surgical or professional development. If the topic is also covered on the exam blueprint, the activity is acceptable for medical-surgical. Topics like leadership, how to conduct research, nursing theory, informatics, pediatrics, and ethics are considered professional development.

Do all medical-surgical nursing contact hours (CH) need to be awarded through AMSN?
No, CNE activities must be provided or co-provided by any individual, state, or national organization accredited as a provider or approver of continuing nursing education. However, AMSN is an excellent resource for medical-surgical nursing education and all AMSN awarded CHs may be counted toward medical-surgical practice.

Do I send in copies of my contact hour certificates?
No, do not send copies of your certificates when you apply. Retain your certificates in case your application is selected for random audit and copies are requested at that time.

I went back to school. Can I use classes from my degree for contact hours?
If you have been accepted into an accredited baccalaureate, master or doctoral degree program, academic courses may be counted toward medical-surgical practice or professional development, depending on the content. A copy of a transcript must be submitted for approval. Each academic hour = 15 contact hours with a maximum of 75 CH allowed per recertification period.

I have more contact hours of continuing education than the required amount. Should I list more activities I attended?
Yes. Please limit additional contact hours to 5 to 10.

Do I have to wait until my current ANCC medical-surgical certification is about to expire to apply for the CMSRN?
You may apply for exam exemption 30 days prior to the current certification expiration date, or up to one (1) year after the expiration date with a late fee.

What will happen if I am unable to meet the continuing education requirements for certification via exam exemption?
If you are unable to meet the continuing education requirements for certification via exam exemption, you can either obtain certification by taking the CMSRN examination or obtain contact hours prior to application.

I attended a medical-surgical program that offered continuing medical education (CME) credit, but not nursing contact hours. Can I use this?
Yes, as long as the content is also useful for nursing.

I am the second author of a medical-surgical nursing article published in a recognized professional journal. Can I receive partial or full credit for publication?
Both authors and co-authors receive full credit.

I attended a certification review course before taking the exam. Will I be able to use this course’s contact hours when I recertify?
Yes, for your first recertification, provided you took the course the year you were certified. For initial recertification, you can include any contact hours, including additional review courses you attended, beginning from January of the year you were certified.

Where is the preceptor form?
The preceptor form is found at the end of this guide or at msncb.org.
